

St. Brigid School Honor Choir Cell Phone Policy

The following rules regarding telecommunications devices apply to the St. Brigid School Honor Choir.

Choir members are allowed to possess telecommunications devices, as long as they are not kept on the student's person. This means that the device must be kept in a purse, book bag, etc., or deposited in the cell phone tray on the piano; purses and book bags, etc., may not be kept at the student's seat, including at Mass; the device cannot be kept in the pocket of pants, coats, etc. during any choir activity. These devices also must be turned off and may not be used by the students. Not only are these devices a potential distraction to rehearsals and performances, but they are also disruptive to the choir climate. This policy includes cell phones, tablets, iPods, iPads, MP3 players, personal laptop computers, etc. There is no reason that a student should need to use any of these during a choir event. In an instance requiring emergency communication with a student, the school will immediately assist the student, a parent, or other responsible adult with that situation by using a school telephone.

If a student is found to be in violation of the Cell Phone Policy during rehearsal, the device (cell phone, etc.) will be confiscated. Cell phones, etc. confiscated as a result of a first violation may be returned to a parent on Wednesdays or Thursdays before or after choir. A repeat offence will result in dismissal from the choir. Any violation during Mass or other performance will result in immediate dismissal from the choir.
